Many of our clients are entrepreneurs and business owners in need of legal advice and various documents to start and support their businesses. In today's economy, business owners must spend countless hours running their day-to-day business operations - let alone worrying about the variety of legal issues that can develop. We are here to help you head off these issues and represent you when they surface. From start-up to succession, we offer quality legal services to address the needs of individuals, partnerships, companies and corporations.

Starting Your Business

When the spark of an idea for a business surfaces in the mind of an entrepreneur, we want to be the law firm you call to create your business and provide you with whatever legal tools are necessary to make your business a success. We will work with you to choose the best legal structure for your business, then draft and file the initial paperwork to create the business, as well as prepare the documents necessary to run your business smoothly.

Running Your Business

Because each business develops its own personality, we understand that the needs of our clients are specific to their industries. When you need contracts, agreements, promissory notes, meeting minutes, etc., we are available to design documents tailored to the needs of your particular business. As your business grows, we want to grow with you.

We want to protect the personality and success of your business as well. Our firm can help you with your intellectual property issues such as trademarks and copyrights. Employment agreements, independent contractor contracts, unemployment compensation issues and workers' compensation concerns are also areas where we can offer our assistance. We will work hard to protect your hard work.

Succession and Expansion

If the time comes when you wish to sell your business or expand into other markets, our firm stands ready to assist you. From importing and exporting issues to transfers of stock and membership interests, we have the tools and expertise you need. We can guide you through the regulatory process and prepare the required legal documents. Should you desire to dissolve your business or merge with another, our attorneys are available to answer your questions and walk you through a smooth transition.

Many businesses need legal assistance. Landlords, horse farms, manufacturing centers, firearms companies and even Hollywood special effects businesses have counted on our expertise. We sincerely hope you will too.
